Abstract

ANDHRA STATE - Formation - Special arrangements required in respect of Bellary district - Instructions issued.

PUBLIC (ANDHRA STATE) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No.1884 Dated the 17th July 1953.

ORDER: -

As it has been decided that the seven taluks of Bellary district, viz., Bellary, Hadagalli, Harpanahalli, Hospet, Kudligi, Sandur and Siruguppa should be transferred to the Mysore State on the formation of the Andhra State on 1st October, 1953, the Government consider that, as far as possible, Andhra non-gazetted officers working in these seven taluks should, from now onwards, be transferred to the Andhra portion of that district, viz., the taluks of Adoni, Alur and Rayadrug, and, if necessary to other Andhra districts, their places in these seven taluks being taken by Kannadigas who are now serving in the three taluks to be included in the Andhra State. Officers, whose mother tongue is Kannada and who are serving in adjoining districts may be transferred to make up any balance required if their family domicile is in the territory to be included in the Mysore State.

2. An officer whose family is domiciled in any of the seven taluks to be transferred to Mysore State should, irrespectiv of his mother tongue, be regarded as a Kannadiga for the purpose of this order.

3. Any difficulty experienced in implementing this order should be reported to the Government for instructions.

4. Departments of the Secretariat and all Heads of Departments are requested to take action accordingly, and to report by the 25th August, 1953, the number of Andhra officers transferred from the area to be included in the Mysore State, the number of Kannadigas transferred to that area, and the number of Andhra officers, if any, whose family domicile is not in that area, but whom it has not been possible to transfer from there.

5. This instruction does not apply to any staff employed in connection with the Tungabhadra Irrigation
